UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA CROOKSTON
Full-Time Tenure-Track Position OR Full-Time Lecturer Position in Agricultural Education

POSITION
Full-time, twelve-month tenure track position or lecturer position in Agricultural Education in the Agriculture and Natural Resources Department at the Crookston campus of the University of Minnesota starting July 1, 2023. This is an open-rank position; salary and rank commensurate with qualifications and experience. A competitive fringe benefits package is offered.

Individuals with a terminal degree and demonstrated potential for research will be considered for a tenure-line appointment. Individuals with a master’s degree and/or a terminal degree but without an interest in research will be considered for a full-time lecturer appointment. The position includes delivering high quality undergraduate instruction to students in the Agricultural Education program. Course topics may include, but are not limited to SAE/FFA and Leadership, Methods of Teaching Agricultural Education, Methods of Teaching Work-Based Learning, Career Exploration in Agriculture, as well as foundational core education courses.

ABOUT UMN CROOKSTON
Backin 115 years of maroon and gold tradition and as a proven leader in online delivery for more than 25 years, the University of Minnesota Crookston campus offers a distinctive learning environment providing personal attention and mentorship to develop leaders, lifelong learners, and engaged citizens. UMN Crookston has received national recognition for the value of its education and retained its #1 status as a public Midwest Regional College in U.S. News and World Report’s 2022-2023 rankings. As one of five campuses in the University of Minnesota system, UMN Crookston cultivates curiosity with hands-on learning in a supportive close-knit community. With approximately 1,500 students from 40 states and 20 countries, 37 majors, 19 online majors and NSIC Division II athletics, a world-class University of Minnesota degree is just steps away. For more information, visit umcrookston.edu.
THE CITY OF CROOKSTON

Located in the heart of northwest Minnesota, Crookston is known as the county seat of Polk County and for its rich history and hospitality. The community of nearly 8,000 prides itself on its recreation, amenities, and ever-growing calendar of events. Crookston is host to a critical access hospital, nine-hole golf course, sports center with three sheets of ice, indoor community swimming pool, outdoor splash park, and a variety of city parks with baseball, softball, basketball, pickleball, tennis, and soccer in mind. Among its distinctive stores and businesses, downtown Crookston boasts Widman’s Candy Shop, which has been voted the best candy store in Minnesota and the Grand Theatre which may be the longest continuously running movie theater in the United States. For those music and theater lovers, there are annual productions by the Crookston Community Theatre, a concert series by the Civic Music League, live music during the town’s annual festival, Ox Cart Days, and various indoor and outdoor concerts and performances.

Crookston is nearby Grand Forks, North Dakota, located only 25 miles west, which features an international airport and additional opportunities for shopping and activities. Roughly 70 miles south of Crookston is Fargo, North Dakota and Moorhead, Minnesota - a larger metro area. The culturally diverse city of Winnipeg, Manitoba in Canada is located approximately three hours north and the Twin Cities of Minneapolis/St. Paul, Minnesota lies four and a half hours to the southeast.

Minnesota itself is known as the “Land of 10,000 Lakes” and our summers can’t be beat. Local and regional recreational activities are in abundance with several state parks within a short driving distance including Itasca State Park and the headwaters of the Mississippi River. Hiking, biking, fishing, boating, hunting, cross-country skiing, bird watching, and snowmobiling are among the many outdoor activities available in the area surrounding Crookston. Learn more at: crk.umn.edu/general/crookston-community

JOB SUMMARY, BENEFITS, REQUIREMENTS & RESPONSIBILITIES Job Code 9402

Visit https://employment.umn.edu for complete instructions on how to apply electronically. The University of Minnesota Crookston offers excellent medical, dental, retirement, paid time off, and tuition benefits. Review of applications will begin November 15, 2022 and will continue until the position is filled. Calls of inquiry welcome by contacting Dr. Kristie Walker, Interim Division Head, by phone: (218) 281-8116 or email: kwalker@umn.edu To request an accommodation during the application process, please e-mail employ@umn.edu or call (612) 624-UOHR (8647).

The University recognizes and values the importance of diversity and inclusion in enriching the employment experience of its employees and in supporting the academic mission. The University is committed to attracting and retaining employees with varying identities and backgrounds.

The University of Minnesota provides equal access to and opportunity in its programs, facilities, and employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, gender, age, marital status, disability, public assistance status, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.